

MAROTO
EVENTS & PRIVATE HIRE

About us

Just steps from London's iconic Oxford Street, Maroto consists of a Restaurant and Lounge Club. Whether you're seeking a refined late-night dining experience or an exhilarating night out, Maroto offers the perfect setting to indulge in the best of both worlds.

The menu

Maroto Restaurant offers a tantalizing fusion of Brazilian flavors interwoven with contemporary culinary techniques, creating a dining experience that is both innovative and rooted in tradition. From the vibrant starters to the hearty mains and enticing sides, every dish reflects the rich heritage of Brazilian cuisine. The menu showcases a variety of Brazilian sauces and flavors, from the tangy tucupi sauce accompanying the scallops to the aromatic feijoada sauce paired with the succulent pork belly. Guests can savor the essence of Brazil in dishes like the Cornish Hake with moqueca sauce, marrying the delicate fish with the bold flavors of coconut milk, peppers, and dendê oil. The influence of Brazilian cuisine shines through in every aspect of Maroto's offerings, promising diners a culinary journey filled with authenticity and innovation.

The lounge & club

the venue

Maroto, a late-night bar and lounge club, nestled below its sister restaurant Maroto Bar and Restaurant on the border of Marylebone and Mayfair. The venue offers a refined yet accessible bar experience and a rare late-night dining option in the city. Maroto attracts a diverse crowd with its vibrant array of music, food and drinks in an atmospheric setting, all upheld by world-class hospitality.

The entertainment and Brazilian flare are enjoyed in the softly lit bar space, with its interior design taking inspiration from the 1930s' art deco movement. Maroto welcomes guests until late, allowing them to unwind on the plush sofas, savouring the meticulously crafted cocktail menu and enjoying the musical offering curated by Musical Director Shane Mac.
